Local Briefs

N. A. A. C. MEETING—The N. A. A. C. will celebrate the emancipation at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the A. M. E. church, Second and Jefferson streets. A program of vocal and instrumental music will be given. The speaker of the day will be the Rev. Sanford of the A. M. E. church.

HERE ON BUSINESS—Ralph R. Bailey, formerly in the real estate business in Phoenix, not in business in Los Angeles, is a visitor here for a few days on business.

START FOR HOME—Harlow Yeager, a prominent wool grower of Flagstaff, accompanied by Mrs. Yeager, left last night for home after a visit of several days here on business.

HUGH MARSHALL RETURNS—Hugh Marshall, formerly cashier of the Phoenix National bank, who has been engaged in war work with the state department at Washington for the last two years, has returned to Phoenix and need not present same until January 3, 1920.

POST-ONES VISIT—The recruiting officer will not visit Phoenix on Thursday, January 1, 1920. Ex-soldiers having mileage and bonus claims need not present same until January 3, 1920.

FLYNN RECOVERS—Thomas A. Flynn, United States attorney, who has been ill since Christmas, is greatly improved and was able to be at his office in the federal building for several hours yesterday.

FILES CONTEST—Claiming that Frank J. Graham has failed to comply with the law relative to desert land entries, Frank Hastings yesterday filed contest proceedings against Graham in the United States land office.

The desert land in question is located in Cochise county.

HOMESTEAD CONTEST—Alleging that Janie Moore did not establish her residence on the homestead in Pinal county on which she filed entry, Eldred H. Barker has instituted contest proceedings in the land office in Phoenix.

The contest claims that from June, 1915, to November, 1919, the contestee did not live on the homestead nor did she establish her residence after the lands were withdrawn for reentry.

ARRAIGNED FOR ROBBERY—William Pledler, charged by G. A. Coke with attempted robbery, was arraigned yesterday before Judge McKee and his examination set for early next week.

ONE THOUSAND CASES—Nearly one thousand cases were handled in the West Phoenix precinct justice court during the year 1919, according to the annual report now being compiled by Miss Anna May Daly, clerk.

Of this number, 252 cases were civil and 737 criminal. Two justices have occupied the bench in the western precinct during the year, Judge Frank de Souza, who resigned to engage in the practice of law with the firm of Bullard and Jacobs, and Judge Nat McKee, who took his place on December 9.

STOLEN CAR FOUND—Recovered from thieves for the second time within two weeks, a Cadillac car owned by Mrs. Hugh Campbell was found at 9 o'clock yesterday morning on Lincoln avenue between Fifth and Sixth avenues by "Lucky" Jim Troutman, deputy sheriff, who added thereby another scalp to an already full belt.

The car was standing by the curb, uninjured, with none of the accessories missing. Two weeks ago Mrs. Campbell's car was stolen, and found later in a ditch four and a half miles southeast of Mesa.

LEAVE FOR COAST—Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Sheath left last night for a week's trip to the coast.

I DON'T CARE! BOO! HOO! HOO!

Youse Chaws are responsible.—You promised if I would only get the goods you'd buy them.

You Are Prevaricators

I bought 5 car loads.—There are 4 1/2 cars left.—I bought on tick. The "licker" now sounds ominous.

WHAT SHALL I DO? WHAT MUST BE DONE? Say, the Gov't has opened a store here. They sell only one thing in competition.—Blankets: They sell a worn blanket at $3.50. I sell the same blanket new for $5.50. If you have the sense of a spring chicken you'll buy a new one.

A Word To Merchants Here

This pure democratic administration has no right to interfere with a retail grocers business.—He has to pay the wholesaler and add a small profit, and really has no voice whatever governing prices!

RAISE A HOWL

I Sure Would If I Were You

Above all, resolve to vote the Republican Ticket. Now I'll sell you today:

Pequot new sheets at $1.20 to $1.50.
I'll sell you Cotton Quilts, from $2.00 to $3.00.
I'll sell you Blankets, from $3.50 up.
I'll sell you H. & M. Paints below the market.
I'll sell you Dietz Lanterns, $1.10, $1.25, $1.50.
I'll sell you 28 gauge stove pipe at 25c joint.
I'll sell you Cable—new—50% below market.
I'll sell you Ore Sacks, 13c to 17c each.
I'll sell you the Finest Furniture in city, cheap.
I'll sell you Rugs at 50c on dollar.
I'll sell you Elegant Gas Ranges at 1/4 Price.
I'll sell you a 6 ft. double oven Hotel Range for $150, fire box in center, cost $300.00, good as new.
I'll sell you Cutlery—Hardware—Granitware—Way down.

IN TRUTH EVERYTHING BELOW MARKET PRICE

I buy entire stocks—entire households, or piece by piece. I go anywhere, deliver anywhere, and pay cash. I practice no gouging tricks.
